In the Plan of Buildings within the Extended Royalty of Edinburgh.

PROPOSALS were this Day made by the Lord Provoſt to a General Meeting of the Feuers for making a Variation in the Plan of the Buildings within the Extended Royalty of this City, which would not only be ornamental, but a great Inducement to the Public to erect Buildings there. His Lordſhip's Propoſition was, That a Circus ſhould be introduced in the Plan in George-ſtreet, in that Part of it where it is interſected from North to South by Frederick-ſtreet, being the Center point between the two Squares, in which any future public Buildings that might be erected within the Extended Royalty would probably be ſituated.

The Feuers who were preſent at this Meeting unanimouſly approved of the propoſed Variation; but in order that this Meaſure may be notified to all others concerned, and that, if they ſee Cauſe for it, they may timeouſly lodge their Objections with me, the Meeting authoriſed me to publiſh this their Reſolution in all the Edinburgh News-papers, and in the London Gazette; and adjourned the further Conſideration of the Matter till their General Meeting, to be held here on Saturday the 16th of June next, at Prince's-ſtreet Coffee-houſe, at One o'Clock Afternoon; of which all concerned are hereby requeſted to take Notice.
